

Sherry Grisham-Cushing, DVM

Home State:

Kansas

Graduated Vet School:

Kansas State University

1986

Dr. Sherry Grisham-Cushing joined Sweetwater Veterinary Clinic in July 2011 as our primary small animal veterinarian. She received her DVM from Kansas State University in 1986. Due to her husband's job location change, she now resides in Rexburg, Idaho. Fortunately for us, she continues to fly in once a month and spends a few days working at SVC providing relief for our other doctors.

Dr. Grisham-Cushing has special interest in canine rehabilitation with advance education in canine sports medicine. Previous continuing education emphasized anesthesia, advance surgical techniques and internal medicine.

In addition to continuing her own education, she is an instructor at Pierce College in the Veterinary Technology Program, teaching students who wish to become Registered Veterinary Technicians.

Leisure Activities

Field Trials with German Shorthair Pointers and riding her Spotted Saddle Horses
